

that acts restrained be described in reasonable detail. Plaintiffs are entitled to ingress and egress to the lot, by automobile, and a turn-around space with a reasonable room for brief stops to discharge or take on passengers. Because of the specificity mandate of 63(c), the Court will hear counsel in Providence at 12:00 noon on August 8, 1966, on the form and scope of judgment to be entered.